Archaeology Notes

Definition: The _______ and study of tools, ______, buildings, pottery, and other remains of past _________ and ________.

Sources
• Things that give us _______________
• Sources can be divided up into:
  – ______________ Sources
  – ______________ Sources

Written Sources
• Anything that is ___________ down such as ____________, letters, ____________, speeches, popular songs, __________, business records, or even report cards

Non-written Sources
• Things that contain no __________ such as fossils, __________, graves, tombs, ____________, town/cities, etc

Fossil
• The ____________ (or imprint) of anything that was once ____________.

Artifact
• Any __________ that was made or used by _________ such as jewelry, __________, __________, _________, etc

Oral Tradition
• Another example of a __________________ is oral tradition, or the ____________, ____________, and beliefs passed on by word of __________ from generation to generation

Primary Source
• Any information about an __________ that was ______________ at the time of the ____________

Secondary Source
• Any ______________ about an event that was ______________ the event took place, by people who have __________ the ____________ sources