Close Reading

While reading the document ask yourself:

- What claims does the author make?
- What evidence does the author use?
- What language (words, phrases, images, symbols) does the author use to persuade the document’s audience?
- How does the document’s language indicate the author’s perspective?