Evidence

- Proof on which a conclusion is based.
Fact

• Something known to be true.
Interpretation

• The act of exploring or clarifying the meaning of something.
Perception

• The act of becoming aware of something through your senses.
Bias

• A preference or inclination towards something that influences your judgement.
Judgment

• An assertion of something thought to be true, such as an idea, opinion, or belief.